JOHN R. GAEDERT

John R. Gaedert, December 4, 1948 to March 26, 2012. For some, this will be the best obituary they've ever read for one simple reason — it will be the last goofy article/letter they have to read written by me. As this is my final letter/obituary I feel the privilege of going a little off course. I was born in 1948 to two of the most wonderful parents that any child could be blessed with, Donald and Natalie Gaedert. Prior to my birth, there was a brother, Harold and sister, Patty. After my arrival came along another brother, Steve and then sister, Kathy. We were a family wealthy with love and fortunate to grow up in a small community that fostered friendship, sportsmanship and hard work.

Then came my own personal family, which taught me the most important facts of life — the love of children and the importance they play in your entire life. My first daughter, Brinda arrived in 1965. Then came along a second daughter, Rebecca (whom later taught me the grief of losing a loving child). My daughter Cindy came into my life in 1971, followed by my son, Johnny in 1974. These four people, plus one other, would have the largest impact on my entire life's purpose. They taught me love, patience, how to cry, how to smile and last but not least, how to work as they sure cost plenty to raise and to feed. Well, it's time to mention that other one in my life that stood by me during many challenges, much happiness and unbelievable memories that grew even stronger right up to my last day. Roxie never questioned my strange ideas and I don't believe she ever thought about trying to hold me back from my dreams. There is no possible way to express my real love for her, my children and even more important, my grandchildren (thank you and please continue to make people proud to know you and call you a friend).

It is absolutely impossible to mention the hundreds of friends that I have been honored to have throughout my life. These people were always like a second family, only a hell of a lot less taxing on my wallet than my immediate family. I have to mention my daily work associates that helped to make my immediate family's lives more comfortable — Dave Hawkins, Denise Ensley, Travis Silvas, Lindsay Crandall, Hunter Smith, Pat Wing, Carol Berger, Paul McLeod, Rod Magoon, Traci Graham, Liza Sayre and all past associates of The County Journal, plus former business partner, Gordon Sparks and associates of our former businesses. There are many more special friends that helped to make The County Journal possible along with hundreds of business people that utilized our publications over the past 45-plus years. Fred Jacobs, owner of J-Ad Graphics has printed our papers since they made paper, I think. Fred, I must say how well you covered yourself by calling to ask how many pages we were sending over and when they would be there, when you were actually only concerned about when you'd receive another payment from us. We always owed him money and I hope Cindy keeps up the tradition.

Well, it's time to come to a close as I could fill the paper with people's names that have meant so much to me. All that were special to me will already know what I would like to say to them one last time. Now, I ask you to always remember your family and friends and especially those that may need a helping hand or even if it's just a hug. My friend, Dave gave me a plaque quoting Abraham Lincoln that hung in my office that I believed in daily, which read: Live a good life and in the end, it's not the years in a life, it's the life in the years. Now please go celebrate the life you made very special to me and join my family to break bread, share a handshake and of course, toast with the last beverage I will ever be able to buy for you, my friends. Funeral services were held 11:00 a.m. Monday, April 2, 2012 at the Charlotte Performing Arts Center with Rev. John Bailey officiating, followed by interment in Maple Hill Cemetery, Charlotte. Visitation was Saturday, March 31 and Sunday, April 1 at Pray Funeral Home in Charlotte, MI. If desired, memorial contributions may be made to Eaton Community Palliative Care, the Charlotte Generosity Fund, Charlotte Christmas Kiddies or Friends of CPAC. Arrangements by Pray Funeral Home. The family may receive online condolences in John's Book of Memories at www.prayfuneralhome.com.

Born into a family of 12 siblings-6 boys and 6 girls, on September 17, 1929 in Eaton Rapids the daughter of Glen and Lora (Koder) Olney. Jean was a remarkable person with her ability to perceive the beauty in the world around her. As a girl growing up, she never knew a home for more than a few years because her family was constantly moving from one side of town to the other following her father's career as a Miller's Dairy employee. Jean was an Eaton Rapids High School graduate, class of 1948. She married Clare E. Phillips on June 5, 1948 after a short courtship. During the 1950's, she gave birth to three children; Michael E. Phillips (1952); Ann Marie Phillips (1956); and Lori Ann Phillips (1958). The family moved into their house on North Street in Eaton Rapids in 1958. This was her home for the next 54 years.
